God's Unchanging Word

The godless that reads
This will get disturbed
But this is My settled
Unchanging word

America you
Knew me at your start
But you let arrogance
Darken your heart

I have humored you
And been more than fair
But you have chosen
The prince of the air

Secular thinking
Has blinded your eyes
And you can't distinguish
Between truth and lies

You have strived with Me
And mine to long
And refused My compass
Of right and wrong

You have shackled My word
But I'll break your chains
I am moving now
And you'll see who reigns

The godless that reads
This will get disturbed
But this is My settled
Unchanging word

Malachi Chapter 3, Verse 6.
For I am the Lord, I do not change.
