

No More Hocus Pocus

When Satan rebelled
Against God he blew it
And when God made man
There's no doubt he knew it

For Satan knows why
God made the human race
To fill in the void
That had been his place

So he caused man to lose
His spiritual eyes
To make his soul subject
To hocus pocus lies

But they'll be no more
Hocus pocus
When Jesus gives back
Man's spirit focus

Lord Jesus Christ came
To heal and restore
By providing man
A spiritual door

A doorway that's narrow
But always there
And once man finds Jesus
He's found out where

When that doors entered
Man enters God's grace
And that's when man gets
Satan off his case

They'll be no more
Hocus pocus
When Jesus gives back
Man's spirit focus
