

Inauguration Day
By Sam Weaver

Inauguration Day

On Inauguration day
The curse was broken
And blind eyes and deaf ears
To God's will were opened

Light replaced darkness as
The government shifted
And in a heartbeat
Our nightmare lifted

The dark carven the Left put us in
Light has penetrated
And brought to an end

Yes God gave America
An open door
And the sleeping giant that
Slept, sleeps no more

On inauguration day
The curse was broken
And blind eyes and deaf ears
To God's will were opened

Matthew Chapter 12. Verse 30.

They who are not with Me are against Me: And they that don't gather with Me scatter abroad.
